39th Annual
Choochokam Arts Festival
July 12-13, 2014

Entertainment Application

The festival boasts 3 stages including a main stage, acoustic stage, and children's stage. Choochokam, loosely translated from the Hopi word, means "gathering of the stars". This year's festival will host more than 40 performers and over 100 fine artists and craftspeople at this street festival in beautiful seaside Langley, just northwest of Seattle on Whidbey Island. The event is free to the public.

Artists must be from the Northwest region (this includes Washington, Oregon, or Idaho) and play original music. Cover only bands and tribute bands will not be considered. All artists will be compensated, and this is negotiated at the time of booking. This is a non-profit event, compensation is very modest, and artists are asked to consider this before submitting. A non-refundable $10.00 application fee is required at time of submission.

Choochokam Arts will provide a staffed entertainers booth next to the main stage to showcase and sell artists' CDs and other merchandise as a service to all performers and takes no percentage for this service.
